IN RE O.O. AND A.G., Relators

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On May 7, 2015, relators O.O. and A.G., the parents of A.G., a child, filed a petition for writ of mandamus in this Court asserting that the Honorable John Phillips, presiding judge of the 314th District Court of Harris County, erred in awarding temporary managing conservatorship of the child A.G. to the Department of Family and Protective Services.¹ See TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN. § 22.221 (Vernon 2004); see also TEX. R. APP. P. 52 (governing original proceedings).

After considering the petition for writ of mandamus, the responses of the real party in interest and attorney ad litem for A.G., and the relevant records, we determine that relators have failed to establish entitlement to the extraordinary relief of a writ of mandamus. Accordingly, we deny relators' petition for writ of mandamus and dismiss any pending motions as moot.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Keyes, Huddle, and Lloyd.

¹ The underlying case is In the Interest of [A.G.], cause number 2015-02330J, pending in the 314th District Court of Harris County, Texas, the Hon. John Phillips presiding.
