IN RE REGINALD WAYNE GUILLORY, Relator

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Reginald Wayne Guillory, acting pro se, has filed a petition for writ of mandamus requesting that we compel the trial court to “set aside trial court proceedings until a proper hearing can be held to determine why the Relator could not adequately participate in his own defense, or to dismiss the charges against him for want of prosecution.”¹ We deny the petition.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Chief Justice Radack and Justices Higley and Huddle.
