IN RE CHARLES OLIVER, Relator

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator, Charles Oliver, has filed a petition for writ of mandamus, seeking to have this Court vacate the respondent district court's order, which he contends is void.¹

¹ The underlying case is Charles Oliver v. Sherese Wilcutt, cause number 16-FD-3116, pending in the 306th District Court of Galveston County, Texas, the Honorable Anne B. Darring presiding.

We deny relator's petition for a writ of mandamus.² See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.8(a). We dismiss all other pending motions as moot.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Chief Justice Radack and Justices Landau and Hightower.

² See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.3(g) (every statement of fact must be supported by citation to evidence included in appendix or record), 52.3(h) (petition must contain citations to authorities and to appendix or record), 52.3(k) (appendix must contain certified or sworn copy of order complained of), 52.7(relator must file record with certified or sworn copy of every document material to relator's claim for relief and authenticated transcript of any relevant testimony from any underlying proceeding or statement that no testimony was adduced in connection with matter).
