

Opinion issued July 22, 2021

In The Court of Appeals
For The
First District of Texas

---

NO. 01-20-00473-CV

---

IN RE TERESA MCMILLAN, Relator

---

---

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

---

---

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator Teresa McMillan has filed a petition for writ of mandamus, challenging the trial court's orders granting real party in interest Bertha Kemp's motions to compel the depositions of two physicians, retained by McMillan to prepare counteraffidavits under Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code Section 18.001(e).<sup>1</sup>

We deny the petition. See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.8(a). Any pending motions are dismissed as moot. The stay imposed by order of June 30, 2020 is lifted.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Kelly, Guerra, and Farris.

---

<sup>1</sup> The underlying case is Bertha Kemp v. Teresa McMillan, cause number 2018-71872, pending in the 55th District Court of Harris County, Texas, the Honorable LaTosha Lewis Payne presiding.