

Opinion issued July 20, 2021

In The Court of Appeals
For The
First District of Texas

---

NO. 01-21-00141-CV

---

IN RE LIBERTY COUNTY MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY, Relator

---

---

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

---

---

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator, Liberty County Mutual Insurance Company, has filed a petition for writ of mandamus, requesting that this Court “direct[] the trial court to sever . . . two car-wreck cases into separate actions.”<sup>1</sup> Relator is the automobile insurer of real party in interest, Martina Marie Valyan, who was involved in two car accidents. Real party in interest's claims against relator previously were severed.

---

<sup>1</sup> The underlying case is Martina Marie Valyan v. Rudi Cierra, Mayan Equipment Rental, Katelyn Marie Dover, and Dawain Dover, Cause No. 2017-52441, pending in the 234th District Court of Harris County, Texas, the Honorable Lauren Reeder presiding.

We deny the petition for writ of mandamus.<sup>2</sup> All pending motions are dismissed as moot.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Chief Justice Radack and Justices Landau and Countiss.

---

<sup>2</sup> See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.3, 52.7(a).