

Opinion issued June 28, 2022

In The Court of Appeals
For The
First District of Texas

NO. 01-21-00671-CV

IN RE ENTERPRISE PRODUCTS PARTNERS L.P.; OILTANKING PARTNERS, L.P.; ENTERPRISE HOUSTON SHIP CHANNEL, L.P.; ENTERPRISE HOUSTON SHIP CHANNEL GP, LLC; ENTERPRISE TERMINALING SERVICES GP, LLC; ENTERPRISE PRODUCTS HOLDINGS, LLC; AND CENTERPOINT ENERGY HOUSTON ELECTRIC, LLC, Relators

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On November 30, 2021, Relators filed a petition for writ of mandamus to compel the Honorable Ursula A. Hall to rule on three motions: (1) a motion to dismiss filed on March 3, 2020 and a related joinder to the motion; (2) a motion to dismiss filed on September 15, 2020; and (3) a motion for summary judgment filed on February 26, 2021.¹ On June 17, 2022, Relators filed an unopposed motion to dismiss their mandamus petition as moot, averring that Judge Hall is no longer presiding over the underlying case because the case was transferred to an MDL pretrial court on June 14, 2022. We grant the motion and dismiss this original proceeding.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Landau, Guerra, and Farris.

¹ The underlying case is Mary Evans and Don Weston Dorrell v. Enterprise Products Partners, LP, et al., cause number 2019-57694, in the 165th District Court of Harris County, Texas, the Honorable Ursula A. Hall presiding.