MEMORANDUM OPINION

After a bench trial, appellant was convicted of the offenses of possession of cocaine, and possession of heroin, and sentenced to 25 years' confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. Appellant appealed to this court.

On July 7, 2011, this court ordered a hearing to determine why appellant had not filed a brief in these appeals. On August 2, 2011, the trial court conducted the hearing. The record of the hearing was filed in this court on August 19, 2011.

The trial court found appellant is indigent and wants to represent himself. The trial court warned appellant of the dangers of representing himself, but appellant declined appointed counsel. Appellant requested, and this court granted, extensions of time for appellant to file his brief. Still, appellant failed to file a brief in this court. On the basis of the trial court's findings, this court has considered the appeals without briefs. See Tex. R. App. P. 38.8(b).

We find no fundamental error.

Accordingly, the judgments of the trial court are affirmed.
