A jury found appellant guilty of two charges of assault of a public servant. After the verdict, appellant and the State entered into an agreement as to sentencing. In accordance with the terms of the agreement, the trial court sentenced appellant to concurrent sentences of five years' confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, but suspended the sentences and placed appellant on community supervision for five years. We dismiss the appeals because the appellant waived her right to appeal both cases.

The trial court entered certifications of the defendant's right to appeal in which the court certified that appellant waived her right of appeal. See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(a)(2). The trial court's certifications are included in the records on appeal. See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(d). The records support the trial court's certifications. See Dears v. State, 154 S.W.3d 610, 615 (Tex. Crim. App. 2005). Appellant's waiver reflects that she entered into an agreement with the State after a jury found her guilty. Appellant waived the right of appeal knowing with certainty the punishment that would be assessed. See Blanco v. State, 18 S.W.3d 218, 219 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000) (holding waiver of right to appeal is valid if appellant knows with certainty the punishment that will be assessed).

Accordingly, we dismiss the appeals.
