San Antonio, Texas

MEMORANDUM OPINION

No. 04-16-00348-CV

Tammie JOLLIFF,
Appellant

v.

Edward A. SPRINGS,
Appellee

From the County Court, Guadalupe County, Texas
Trial Court No. 2016-CV-0112
Honorable Robin V. Dwyer, Judge Presiding

PER CURIAM

Sitting: Rebeca C. Martinez, Justice
Patricia O. Alvarez, Justice
Luz Elena D. Chapa, Justice

Delivered and Filed: October 19, 2016

DISMISSED FOR WANT OF PROSECUTION

The clerk's record was filed on June 6, 2016 and the reporter's record was filed on July 27, 2016. Appellant's brief was therefore due on August 26, 2016. Neither the brief nor a motion for extension of time was filed. We, therefore, ordered appellant to file, on or before September 30, 2016, a written response explaining why this appeal should not be dismissed for want of prosecution. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a); see also TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(c) (allowing involuntary dismissal if appellant has failed to comply with a court order). Appellant failed to respond to our order. We therefore dismiss this appeal for want of prosecution.
