

Fourth Court of Appeals
San Antonio, Texas

MEMORANDUM OPINION

No. 04-17-00289-CR

Devone HIBBLER,
Appellant

v.

The STATE of Texas,
Appellee

From the 379th Judicial District Court, Bexar County, Texas
Trial Court No. 2017CR1411
Honorable Ron Rangel, Judge Presiding

PER CURIAM

Sitting: Sandee Bryan Marion, Chief Justice
Karen Angelini, Justice
Marialyn Barnard, Justice

Delivered and Filed: July 12, 2017

APPEAL DISMISSED

Pursuant to a plea bargain agreement, appellant pled nolo contendere to aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. The trial court imposed sentence and signed a certification of defendant's right to appeal stating that this "is a plea-bargain case, and the defendant has NO right of appeal." See TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(a)(2). After appellant filed his notice of appeal, the court clerk sent copies of the certification to this court. See TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(e).

The clerk's record contains a written plea bargain agreement, and the punishment assessed did not exceed the punishment recommended by the State and agreed to by the appellant; therefore, the trial court's certification accurately reflects that appellant's case is a plea bargain case and he does not have a right of appeal. See TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(a)(2). Rule 25.2(d) provides, "The appeal must be dismissed if a certification that shows the defendant has the right of appeal has not been made part of the record under these rules." TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(d). Accordingly, on May 31, 2017, this court issued an order stating this appeal would be dismissed pursuant to Rule 25.2(d) unless an amended trial court certification that shows appellant has the right of appeal was made part of the appellate record. See Daniels v. State, 110 S.W.3d 174 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2003, order); TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(d); 37.1. No amended trial court certification has been filed; therefore, this appeal is dismissed.
