From the 175th Judicial District Court, Bexar County, Texas

Honorable Maria Teresa Herr, Judge Presiding

DISMISSED

Under Rule 25.2(d) of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, an appeal “must be dismissed if a certification that shows the defendant has the right of appeal has not been made part of the record.” TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(d). The trial court’s certification in each of these appeals states that “this criminal case is a plea-bargain case, and the defendant has NO right of appeal.” The clerk’s record in each of these appeals reflects that the case was a plea-bargain case and the appellant did not have the right of appeal. Therefore, in each appeal, we ordered the appellant to cause the trial court to file an amended trial court certification showing that he had the right of appeal. We further ordered that if an amended trial court certification was not filed, the appeal would be dismissed.

No amended trial court certifications were filed. However, in each appeal, appellant's counsel filed a response stating that she reviewed the record and concluded that no grounds exist to amend the trial court certification. We, therefore, dismiss these appeals. See TEX. R. APP. P. 25.2(d).
