

Fourth Court of Appeals
San Antonio, Texas

MEMORANDUM OPINION

No. 04-20-00470-CV

Julie G. HENSLEY and Mark B. Hensley, Appellants

v.

CITY OF INGRAM,
Appellee

From the 198th Judicial District Court, Kerr County, Texas
Trial Court No. 19355B
Honorable Solomon Casseb Jr., Judge Presiding

PER CURIAM

Sitting: Patricia O. Alvarez, Justice
Luz Elena D. Chapa, Justice
Irene Rios, Justice

Delivered and Filed: November 4, 2020

DISMISSED FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION

Appellants filed a notice of appeal after the trial court notified the parties that it was granting Appellee's plea to the jurisdiction against Appellants' declaratory judgment action. However, the clerk's record contains no final judgment. See Lehmann v. Har-Con Corp., 39 S.W.3d 191, 195 (Tex. 2001) (noting that generally "an appeal may be taken only from a final judgment").

Appellee moved this court to dismiss the appeal for want of jurisdiction. In response, Appellants filed a motion for extension of time to obtain a signed order from the trial court and submit it in a bill of exception. Appellants' motion effectively concedes that the appellate record does not contain a final judgment, and Appellants failed to show how this court's jurisdiction has been invoked.

Because the record does not include an appealable interlocutory order or final judgment, this court has no jurisdiction over the appeal, and we must dismiss it. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(a); Lehmann, 39 S.W.3d at 195. We grant Appellee's motion to dismiss this appeal for want of jurisdiction and deny Appellants' motion for extension of time to file a bill of exception.
