Ninth District of Texas at Beaumont

NO. 09-10-00234-CR

GREGORY BRANDON JACKSON, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 252nd District Court
Jefferson County, Texas
Trial Cause No. 93264

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Pursuant to a plea bargain agreement, appellant Gregory Brandon Jackson pled guilty to possession of a prohibited weapon. The trial court found the evidence sufficient to find Jackson guilty, but deferred further proceedings, placed Jackson on community supervision for four years, and assessed a fine of $500. The State subsequently filed a motion to revoke Jackson’s unadjudicated community supervision. Jackson pled “true” to four violations of the conditions of his community supervision. The trial court found that

Jackson violated the conditions of his community supervision, found Jackson guilty of possession of a prohibited weapon, and assessed punishment at three years of confinement.

Jackson's appellate counsel filed a brief that presents counsel's professional evaluation of the record and concludes the appeal is frivolous. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967); High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978). On October 28, 2010, we granted an extension of time for appellant to file a pro se brief. We received no response from appellant. We reviewed the appellate record, and we agree with counsel's conclusion that no arguable issues support an appeal. Therefore, we find it unnecessary to order appointment of new counsel to re-brief the appeal. Compare Stafford v. State, 813 S.W.2d 503, 511 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991). We affirm the trial court's judgment.¹
