MEMORANDUM OPINION

On June 29, 2011, L.K.F. filed notice of appeal of the trial court's order terminating her parental rights. The trial court granted a motion for new trial while the court maintained plenary power over the case. See Tex. R. App. P. 21.8(a). On November 10, 2011, we notified the parties that unless our jurisdiction over the appeal was established, the appeal would be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. No reply has been filed.

The notice of appeal invoked the Court's appellate jurisdiction to review a judgment that has been vacated. No other party has filed notice of appeal. The Court finds it lacks jurisdiction over the appeal. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed.

APPEAL DISMISSED.
