

In The Court of Appeals
Ninth District of Texas at Beaumont

NO. 09-19-00265-CR

BRONSON WILLIAMS, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the Criminal District Court
Jefferson County, Texas
Trial Cause No. 13-17383

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Pursuant to a plea bargain agreement, appellant Bronson Williams pleaded guilty to aggravated robbery. The trial court found the evidence sufficient to find Williams guilty, but deferred further proceedings, placed Williams on community supervision for ten years, and assessed a fine of $500. The State subsequently filed a motion to revoke Williams’s unadjudicated community supervision. Williams pleaded “true” to eight violations of the terms of his community supervision. The trial court found that Williams had violated the conditions of his community supervision, found Williams guilty of aggravated robbery, and assessed punishment at fifty years of confinement.

Williams's appellate counsel filed a brief that presents counsel's professional evaluation of the record and concludes the appeal is frivolous. See Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967); High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978). On September 10, 2019, we granted an extension of time for Williams to file a pro se brief. We received no response from Williams. We have reviewed the appellate record, and we agree with counsel's conclusion that no arguable issues support an appeal. Therefore, we find it unnecessary to order appointment of new counsel to re-brief the appeal. Cf. Stafford v. State, 813 S.W.2d 503, 511 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991). We affirm the trial court's judgment.¹

AFFIRMED.
