

In The Court of Appeals
Ninth District of Texas at Beaumont

NO. 09-23-00121-CR

BRANDI RHNEE SHELTON, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 163rd District Court
Orange County, Texas
Trial Cause No. B230038-R

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On April 20, 2023, Brandi Rhnee Shelton filed a notice of appeal in which she gave this Court notice of her intent to appeal from a ruling from the 163rd District Court of Orange County denying her petition for habeas relief. Her notice of appeal failed to state whether the trial court had signed a written order denying her petition and failed to state the date on which the order (if there was one) was signed.

On May 4, 2023, we notified the parties that it appeared no appealable order had been signed in the case. We also notified the parties and the trial court that we had not received a certification of the defendant's right to appeal. We warned the parties that unless our jurisdiction was established over Shelton's appeal by May 19, the appeal would be dismissed without further notice.

Subsequently, neither party filed responded to our notice. Thus, there is nothing in our record to explain how this Court has jurisdiction over Shelton's appeal. We have not neither received a copy of an order denying Shelton's application for a writ of habeas corpus, nor have we received a certification that shows Shelton has a right to appeal.

Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal for want of jurisdiction. See Tex. R. App. P. 43.2(f).
