

In The
Court of Appeals
Ninth District of Texas at Beaumont

NO. 09-23-00150-CR

STEVEN LOUIS MASSEY JR., Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 221st District Court
Montgomery County, Texas
Trial Cause No. 18-01-00374-CR

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On June 26, 2018, the trial court sentenced Steven Louis Massey Jr. on an indictment for possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver. After signing the judgment, the trial court certified the case resulted from a plea-bargain and that Massey has no right to appeal.¹

¹See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(a)(2).

On May 16, 2023, Massey, acting pro se, filed a notice of appeal. The District Clerk provided the trial court's certification that Massey has no right to appeal to the Court of Appeals. After the Court received the notice, the Clerk of this Court notified the parties on May 18, 2023, that the Court would dismiss the appeal unless the appellant established the trial court's certification was incorrect. Even though Massey responded to the Court's notice, his response fails to establish that the trial court's certification that shows he has no right to appeal is incorrect.

We dismiss the appeal.²
