MEMORANDUM OPINION

In a petition for a writ of mandamus, Priscilla Graham Individually and as next friend of Minor Child E.S. argued that the trial court abused its discretion in a bill of review case by signing a temporary restraining order on efforts to enforce the default judgment in the underlying case being challenged by the bill of review. On April 9, 2024, the Clerk of the Court issued a letter that notified the parties that the trial court had signed a temporary injunction, the appellate court had docketed the accelerated appeal from the temporary injunction as Appeal Number 09-24-00105-CV, and that this mandamus proceeding would be dismissed as moot unless a party filed a written response showing grounds for continuing this original proceeding. No party responded to the Clerk's notice.

We conclude that this original proceeding has become moot, no exception to the doctrine of mootness applies, and we lack jurisdiction over this original proceeding. Accordingly, we dismiss the petition for a writ of mandamus without reference to the merits.

PETITION DISMISSED.
