

COURT OF APPEALS
SECOND DISTRICT OF TEXAS
FORT WORTH

NO. 02-11-00309-CR

MARLOWE ANTOHETTA WILLIS

APPELLANT

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

STATE

FROM CRIMINAL DISTRICT COURT NO. 1 OF TARRANT COUNTY

MEMORANDUM OPINION¹

Pursuant to a plea bargain, Appellant Marlowe Antohetta Willis pled guilty to the state jail felony of debit card abuse, and the trial court convicted Appellant of that offense and sentenced Appellant to six months' confinement. Appellant filed a timely notice of appeal.

The trial court's certification states that this is a plea-bargained case and that Appellant has no right of appeal. Accordingly, we informed Appellant by letter on July 26, 2011, that this case was subject to dismissal unless Appellant or any party showed grounds for continuing the appeal on or before Friday, August 5, 2011.² Appellant responded not with any grounds for continuing the appeal but instead with a pro se motion to dismiss the appeal and to send a mandate to the trial court, a request that we liberally construe as a request to accelerate the mandate. This court is of the opinion that the request to accelerate the mandate should be granted.³

Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal⁴ and grant the motion to accelerate the mandate. The mandate shall issue immediately.
