JULIE MICHELLE DOWDY, APPELLANT

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, APPELLEE

On Appeal from the 413th District Court
Johnson County, Texas
Trial Court No. F48271; Honorable William C. Bosworth, Jr., Presiding

July 11, 2017

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before QUINN, C.J., and CAMPBELL and PIRTLE, JJ.

Pending before this court is the Motion to Dismiss Appeal of Appellant, Julie Michelle Dowdy, in which she moves to have her notice of appeal withdrawn and this appeal dismissed. Appellant was convicted of assault of a public servant¹ and sentenced to ten years confinement, suspended in favor of ten years community supervision. The trial court later revoked Appellant's community supervision, upon a motion from the State and Appellant's plea of true to said motion, and imposed the original sentence of ten years confinement, subject to shock probation consideration. Appellant appealed the judgment revoking her community supervision.²

As required by Rule 42.2(a) of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, the motion to dismiss is signed by Appellant and her attorney. No decision of this court having been delivered, the motion is granted, and the appeal is dismissed. No motion for rehearing will be entertained and our mandate will issue forthwith.
