MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before QUINN, C.J., and CAMPBELL and PIRTLE, JJ.

Appellant Anthony Cleveland, appearing pro se, filed a notice of appeal on April 4, 2017. The appeal was subsequently transferred to this court from the Third Court of Appeals by order of the Supreme Court. The clerk's record was due May 30, 2017. On June 7, 2017, the district clerk notified us that appellant had not paid or made arrangements to pay for the clerk's record. See TEX. R. APP. P. 35.3(a)(2). By letter of June 8, 2017, we directed appellant to make payment arrangements acceptable to the district clerk by June 19, 2017. Failure to do so, we advised, would result in dismissal of the appeal for want of prosecution.

To date, appellant has not made payment arrangements for the clerk's record nor has he filed any response to the court's letter. The appeal is therefore dismissed for want of prosecution, failure to comply with requirements of the appellate rules, and failure to comply with this court's order. See TEX. R. APP. P. 37.3(b); 42.3(b), (c).
