MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before QUINN, C.J., and CAMPBELL and PARKER, JJ.

Appellant, Richard Oliver, filed a notice of appeal from the Final Decree of Divorce on March 13, 2018. The clerk's record was due on April 10, 2018, but was not filed. On May 10, 2018, the district clerk notified the Clerk of this Court that Oliver had not made payment arrangements for the clerk's record. See TEX. R. APP. P. 35.3(a)(2). By letter of May 11, 2018, we directed Oliver to make acceptable payment arrangements for the clerk's record by May 21. Failure to do so, we admonished, would subject the appeal to dismissal for want of prosecution. See TEX. R. APP. P. 37.3(b).

To date, Oliver has not made payment arrangements for the clerk's record or filed any response to the Court's letter. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed for want of prosecution and because Oliver failed to comply with a requirement of the appellate rules and an order of the Court. TEX. R. APP. P. 37.3(b); 42.3(b), (c).
