

In The Court of Appeals
Seventh District of Texas at Amarillo

No. 07-19-00348-CV

TIFFANI ELKINS AND MARCIA ELKINS, APPELLANTS

V.

HUNTSVILLE HOUSING AUTHORITY, APPELLEE

On Appeal from the County Court at Law
Walker County, Texas¹
Trial Court No. 13,302-CV, Honorable Tracy M. Sorensen, Presiding

April 2, 2020

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before PIRTLE and PARKER and DOSS, JJ.

Appellants, Marcia Elkins and Tiffani Elkins, proceeding pro se, appeal from the trial court's judgment in favor of appellee, Huntsville Housing Authority. Appellants' brief was originally due February 14, 2020, but was not filed. By letter of February 21, 2020, we notified appellants that the appeal was subject to dismissal for want of prosecution if a brief was not received by March 2.² To date, appellants have not filed a brief or requested an extension of time. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution. TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a)(1), 42.3(b).

¹ Pursuant to the Texas Supreme Court's docket equalization efforts, this case was transferred to this Court from the Tenth Court of Appeals. See TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN. § 73.001 (West 2013).

Per Curiam

² The Clerk of this Court sent the February 21 letter to appellants at their last known address. The letter was returned to the Clerk undelivered. Appellants have not provided the Court with any other mailing address. TEX. R. APP. P. 9.1(b) (requiring unrepresented parties to provide appellate courts with their contact information).