MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before QUINN, C.J., and PIRTLE and DOSS, JJ.

Weekley Homes, LLC sued West Travis County Public Utility Agency and Jennifer Reichers, in her official capacity as the agency's general manager, (collectively the PUA). The PUA answered with a plea to the trial court's jurisdiction and a general denial. The trial court granted the plea to the jurisdiction in part and denied it in part. Weekley and the PUA each filed notices of appeal.<sup>2</sup>

Now pending before this Court is the parties' "Joint Motion to Remand" in which they represent they have reached "a settlement resolving all of the claims and controversies between them." They accordingly request that we set aside the trial court's order and remand the cause to the trial court for rendition of an agreed order. The motion is signed by counsel for all parties. Pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.1(a)(2)(B), we grant the motion, set aside the trial court's order without regard to the merits of the appeal, and remand the cause to the trial court for rendition of an order according to the agreement of the parties. Per the agreement of the parties, costs are taxed against the party incurring them. Having set aside the trial court's order at the request of the parties, no motion for rehearing will be entertained and our mandate will issue forthwith.
