

In The Court of Appeals
Sixth Appellate District of Texas at Texarkana

No. 06-10-00057-CR

KREASHA SIMS, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 217th Judicial District Court
Angelina County, Texas
Trial Court No. 29,162

Before Morriss, C.J., Carter and Moseley, JJ.
Memorandum Opinion by Justice Moseley

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Kreasha Sims appeals from her conviction, on her plea of guilty without either a plea or charge agreement appearing in the record, to the offense of arson in trial court number 28,025, and aggravated assault on a public servant in trial court number 29,162.¹

This appeal is from her conviction for aggravated assault on a public servant. This appeal was briefed together with the appeal from her conviction in a companion case, cause number 06-10-00056-CR. Sims has filed a single brief, in which she raises issues common to both of her appeals, concerning the validity of her plea of guilty in light of various admonishment errors and the invalidity of waiver of her right to appeal obtained by the State.

We addressed these issues in detail in our opinion of this date on Sims' appeal in cause number 06-10-00056-CR. For the reasons stated therein, we likewise conclude that although error has been shown in this case, the errors do not justify reversal.

We affirm the judgment.

Bailey C. Moseley
Justice

Date Submitted: August 27, 2010
Date Decided: October 15, 2010

¹Originally appealed to the Twelfth Court of Appeals, this case was transferred to this Court by the Texas Supreme Court pursuant to its docket equalization efforts. See TEX. GOV'T CODE ANN. § 73.001 (Vernon 2005). We are unaware of any conflict between precedent of the Twelfth Court of Appeals and that of this Court on any relevant issue. See TEX. R. APP. P. 41.3.

Do Not Publish