DARRIAN DE' ANTHONY DAVIS-SANDERS, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 336th District Court
Fannin County, Texas
Trial Court No. CR-12-24275

Before Morriss, C.J., Moseley and Burgess, JJ.
Memorandum Opinion by Justice Moseley

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Darrian De'Anthony Davis-Sanders appeals from a judgment that adjudicated him guilty of delivery of less than one gram of cocaine within a school zone, sentenced him to ten years' imprisonment, and ordered him to pay $140.00 in restitution. Davis-Sanders has filed a single brief, in which he raises an issue common to all of his appeals.¹ He argues that his counsel rendered ineffective assistance by failing to question the legality of the search that led police officers to discover that he was in possession of methamphetamine and a firearm.

We addressed this issue in detail in our opinion of this date on Davis-Sanders' appeal in cause number 06-14-00186-CR. For the reasons stated therein, we likewise conclude that Davis-Sanders has failed to demonstrate that he received ineffective assistance of counsel in this case.

We affirm the trial court's judgment.
