Sixth Appellate District of Texas at Texarkana

No. 06-18-00021-CR

RANDALL GREENOUGH, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 402nd District Court
Wood County, Texas
Trial Court No. 22,721-2015

Before Morriss, C.J., Moseley and Burgess, JJ.
Memorandum Opinion by Chief Justice Morriss

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Randall Greenough was charged in six separate indictments with four charges of aggravated sexual assault of a child and two charges of indecency with a child by sexual contact.¹ A jury found him guilty of all six offenses. As to each conviction, the jury assessed Greenough's punishment as ninety-nine years' confinement in prison, along with a $10,000.00 fine. The trial court ordered Greenough's sentences to run consecutively.

Greenough has filed a single brief in which he raises an issue common to all of his appeals,² maintaining that the State's argument was egregious and that the trial court's instruction to disregard his comments did not cure the alleged defect. We addressed this issue in detail in our opinion of this date in Greenough's appeal in cause number 06-18-00020-CR. For the reasons stated therein, we affirm the trial court's judgment in this cause number.

The trial court's judgment is affirmed.

¹In this case, the State indicted Greenough, in trial court cause number 22,721-2015, with the offense of aggravated sexual assault of a child, alleging that on July 30, 2015, Greenough "did then and there intentionally or knowingly cause the penetration of the female sexual organ of [Ginny], a child who was then and there younger than 17 years of age and not the spouse of the defendant, by defendant's finger."

²Greenough appeals from four convictions of sexual assault of a child and two convictions of indecency with a child in our cause numbers 06-18-00019-CR through 06-18-00024-CR.
