Caliber One Indemnity Company, Appellant

v.

Copperas Cove, L.L.C. d/b/a Hill County Rehabilitation and Nursing Center; Epic Health Management, L.L.C.; Leigh Ingram; and Debbie Deaton, Appellees

FROM THE DISTRICT COURT OF BELL COUNTY, 146TH DISTRICT COURT JUDICIAL DISTRICT NO. 190,245-B, HONORABLE RICK MORRIS, JUDGE PRESIDING

In this accelerated interlocutory appeal, appellant Caliber One Indemnity Company requests the dissolution of a temporary injunction requiring it to take all action necessary to prevent the alteration, destruction, erasure, or damage to any record, document, email, electronic storage media, audio visual storage media, voicemail, computer hardware or software, company policies or procedure manuals, phone messages or other material containing any reference to or relating to the claims, handling, investigation, defense and settlement negotiation of the claims against appellee Copperas Cove.<sup>1</sup>

By order dated April 19, 2002, the district court dissolved the temporary injunction.

Accordingly, we dismiss Caliber One's appeal as moot. See generally Isuani v. Manske-Sheffield Radiology Group, 802 S.W.2d 235 (Tex. 1991).
