MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant pleaded guilty, was convicted of murder, and was sentenced in accordance with his plea bargain with the State. The trial court has certified that the case is a plea bargain case and that appellant has waived his right to appeal. See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(a)(2). We therefore dismiss the appeal. Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(d) (if trial court does not certify that defendant has right to appeal, “appeal must be dismissed”).
