MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant's notice of appeal was filed in this Court on November 25, 2013. On December 11, we were informed by the court reporter that appellant had not paid for or made arrangements to pay for the reporter's record, and on March 13, 2014, we were informed by the trial court clerk that appellant had not paid for or made arrangements to pay for the clerk's record. On April 10, we sent appellant's retained attorney notice that the clerk's and reporter's records were late and requested that he make arrangements to have the record filed and provide a status report no later than April 21. We informed counsel that the appeal would be subject to dismissal if he did not respond by that date. To date, the clerk's record and reporter's record have not been filed, and counsel has not responded in any fashion to our notice. We therefore dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution. See Tex. R. App. P. 37.3(b) (if no clerk's record is filed due to non-indigent appellant's fault, appellate court may dismiss appeal for want of prosecution).
