NO. D-1-FM-13-003895, HONORABLE ORLINDA NARANJO, JUDGE PRESIDING

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Daniel Alan Sliger, pro se, has appealed a final divorce decree that ended his marriage to Audra Renee Rodriguez, awarded Rodriguez sole managing conservatorship of two children, and restricted Sliger's possession and access. In lieu of a conventional appellant's brief, Sliger has filed a two-page "Administrative notice to proceed without non-required Brief" that incorporates or refers us to his earlier-filed petition for writ of mandamus challenging the same decree, docketed as Cause No. 03-16-00329-CV. We have previously denied Sliger's mandamus petition,<sup>1</sup> and similarly conclude that these arguments fail to demonstrate any reversible error by the district court. Accordingly, we affirm the decree.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> We dismiss as moot Rodriguez's motion to dismiss Sliger's appeal for noncompliance with the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure.
