NO. D-1-GN-15-003836, HONORABLE KARIN CRUMP, JUDGE PRESIDING

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appellant Steven B. Aubrey filed a notice of appeal on April 4, 2016, from the judgment “signed on January 20, 2016.” The clerk’s record reflects that the trial court signed an order denying appellant’s motion to disqualify appellee Betsy S. Aubrey’s legal counsel on that date.

On June 28, 2016, Betsy S. Aubrey filed a motion to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction because the trial court’s order denying appellant’s motion to disqualify is not final or an appealable interlocutory order. See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 51.014 (authorizing specified appeals from interlocutory orders); Bally Total Fitness Corp. v. Jackson, 53 S.W.3d 352, 352 (Tex. 2001) (“A party may not appeal an interlocutory order unless authorized by statute.”). This Court requested a response from appellant as to the motion to dismiss. Appellant filed a letter with this Court, but he did not provide a basis for this Court's jurisdiction over the interlocutory order denying his motion to disqualify. Accordingly, we grant Betsy S. Aubrey's motion to dismiss this appeal for lack of jurisdiction.
