

TEXAS COURT OF APPEALS, THIRD DISTRICT, AT AUSTIN

---

---

NO. 03-16-00516-CV
NO. 03-16-00517-CV

---

---

Han Jin Huang, Appellant

v.

Nancy Hohengarten; Austin Oaks Hospital; JW Marriott; Randall Wayne Slagle, Jr.; Shonna Castillo; Central Health, and Heart of Texas Pizza, L.P., Appellees

---

---

FROM THE COUNTY COURT AT LAW NO. 2 OF TRAVIS COUNTY, NO. C-1-CV-16-002563, HONORABLE TODD T. WONG, JUDGE PRESIDING

---

---

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On October 18, 2016, this Court notified appellant that the clerk's record in the above-referenced trial-court cause was overdue and that the Court had received notice from the county clerk's office that appellant had neither paid, nor made arrangements to pay, for the clerk's record.<sup>1</sup> This Court requested that appellant make arrangements for the record and submit a status report regarding this appeal on or before October 28, 2016. The Court further informed appellant that failure to comply may result in the dismissal of these appeals for want of prosecution.<sup>2</sup> As of this date, the Court has received no response from appellant. Moreover, the county clerk's office has now informed the Court that, as of February 24, 2017, its attempts to collect payment for the clerk's record have been unsuccessful. Accordingly, we dismiss these appeals for want of prosecution.<sup>3</sup>

---

<sup>1</sup>Nor has appellant preserved any claim of indigency.

<sup>2</sup> See Tex. R. App. P. 37.3(b).

---

Bob Pemberton, Justice

Before Justices Puryear, Pemberton, and Goodwin

Dismissed for Want of Prosecution

Filed: March 3, 2017

---

<sup>3</sup> See Tex. R. App. P. 42.3(b).