FROM THE 26TH DISTRICT COURT OF WILLIAMSON COUNTY
NO. 18-1381-C26, THE HONORABLE DONNA GAYLE KING, JUDGE PRESIDING

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Darla Goulla, acting pro se, filed notices of appeal on April 10, 2019, and on April 25, 2019, complaining of an eviction judgment signed on April 5, 2019, by the county court at law but referencing two underlying cause numbers. We assigned cause number 03-19-00271-CV to the appeal containing filings from the county court at law (cause number 18-2095-CC1). We assigned cause number 03-19-00235-CV to the appeal containing filings from the district court (cause number 18-1381-C26).

The clerk's record from the county court at law in 03-19-00271 contains a final judgment; however, the clerk's record from the district court in 03-19-00235 does not. The district-court record contains an agreed temporary injunction order and a now-expired order on a motion to stay proceedings, both signed on December 12, 2018. Neither of those district-court orders were appealable by the time that Goulla filed her notices of appeal on April 10, 2019, and April 25, 2019. See Tex. R. App. P. 26.1. Without a final judgment or otherwise appealable order, we may not exercise appellate jurisdiction. See Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 51.014; Lehmann v. Har-Con Corp., 39 S.W.3d 191, 195 (Tex. 2001).

On June 11, 2019, this Court requested that Goulla file a written response demonstrating this Court’s jurisdiction over the appeal in 03-19-00235. Her response indicated that in her view, the case was “transferred” to this court on the date of her notice of appeal, but her response did not demonstrate our jurisdiction over the appeal.

We dismiss this appeal for want of jurisdiction.<sup>1</sup> See Tex. R. App. P. 42.3(a).
