dismissal for want of prosecution, unless appellant provided a reasonable explanation for his failure to timely file a brief within ten days. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a)(1).

On November 23, 2020, appellant filed a motion to extend the deadline to file his brief. We granted the motion and ordered the brief due on January 7, 2021. Appellant failed to file a brief before the new deadline. Therefore, on January 11, 2021, the clerk of the court notified appellant that, pursuant to Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 38.8(a)(1), the appeal was subject to dismissal for want of prosecution, unless appellant provided a reasonable explanation for his failure to timely file a brief within ten days. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a)(1).

Appellant has failed to either reasonably explain his failure to file a brief, file a motion for extension of time to file his brief, or file his brief. Accordingly, the appeal is dismissed for want of prosecution. See TEX. R. APP. P. 38.8(a), 42.3(b).
