MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Chief Justice Contreras and Justices Longoria and Tijerina Memorandum Opinion by Chief Justice Contreras

Appellant Osbaldo Guerra, individually and d/b/a On Call Delivery Service, filed a notice of appeal assailing an order signed on May 19, 2022. Appellant has now filed a “Motion for Voluntary Dismissal” of this appeal on grounds that the appeal is moot.

Appellant requests that we dismiss this appeal “without prejudice to the filing of subsequent appeals.”

The Court, having examined and fully considered appellant’s motion, is of the opinion that it should be granted. Accordingly, we grant appellant’s “Motion for Voluntary Dismissal” and we dismiss the appeal without regard to the merits and without prejudice to the filing of subsequent appeals from the underlying proceeding. Costs will be taxed against the appellant. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.1(d).

DORI CONTRERAS
Chief Justice
