

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Bumgardner, Kelsey and Senior Judge Hodges

JULIO VALLEJO, JR.

v. Record No. 1589-04-1

PALMS ASSOCIATES AND
ASSOCIATED INDEMNITY CORPORATION

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
FEBRUARY 1, 2005

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Julio Vallejo, Jr., pro se, on brief).

(Daniel E. Lynch; John T. Cornett, Jr.; Williams & Lynch, on brief), for appellees.

Julio Vallejo, Jr. (claimant) appeals a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission finding that he failed to prove he sustained a compensable injury by accident on March 7 or 8, 2001.¹ We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Vallejo v. Palms Associates, VWC File No. 213-46-11 (June 4, 2004). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.

* Pursuant to Code § 17.1-413, this opinion is not designated for publication.

¹ Because the commission found that claimant failed to prove a compensable injury by accident, it did not address any remaining issues. However, the commission noted that the "record supports the determination by the Deputy Commissioner that the claimant did not provide the employer with timely notice of the alleged incident."
