

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Petty, Chafin and Senior Judge Annunziata

STRANG-HATCHER CORPORATION 27
AND SEDGWICK CMS

v. Record No. 1960-13-1

SHARON L. SHERMAN

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
FEBRUARY 4, 2014

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Rachel A. Riordan; Kalbaugh, Pfund & Messersmith, on briefs), for appellants.

(John H. Klein; Montagna, Klein, Camden, LLP, on brief), for appellee.

Strang-Hatcher Corporation 27 and Sedgwick CMS appeal the decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission (commission) finding that Sharon L. Sherman's (claimant) ongoing medical conditions were causally related to the compensable injury by accident and that claimant's need for pain management treatment was reasonable, medically necessary, and causally related to the accident. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Sherman v. Strang-Hatcher Corp., JCN VA02000008167 (Sept. 12, 2013). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
