

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Frank, Clements and Haley

NAOMI BROWN

v. Record No. 2761-04-1

VIRGINIA RETIREMENT SYSTEM

MEMORANDUM OPINION*
PER CURIAM
MAY 10, 2005

FROM THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE CITY OF CHESAPEAKE
Norman Olitsky, Judge Designate

(C. Gerard Thompson; Cooper, Spong & Davis, P.C., on brief), for appellant.

(Judith Williams Jagdmann, Attorney General; Brian J. Goodman, Assistant Attorney General, on brief), for appellee.

Naomi Brown appeals a decision of the Circuit Court of the City of Chesapeake affirming the final case decision of the Virginia Retirement System (VRS) denying Brown's claim for disability retirement benefits. Brown contends the circuit court erred in concluding that substantial evidence existed in the record to support VRS's final case decision. We have reviewed the record, VRS's final case decision, and the final decision of the circuit court and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the circuit court in its final opinion. See Brown v. Virginia Retirement System, Case No. CH-03-1072 (Nov. 17, 2004). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.

Affirmed.
