No. 69801-0-1
DIVISION ONE
UNPUBLISHED OPINION
FILED: MAY 27 2014

PER CURIAM. Cory Hubbard appeals his conviction for residential burglary, arguing that the trial court erred in instructing the jury that it had a “duty to return a verdict of guilty” if it found all the elements of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt. This argument is controlled by our decision in State v. Ryan P. Moore, No. 69766-8-1 (Wash. February 18, 2014) and the cases cited therein.

Affirmed.
