

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

STATE OF WASHINGTON,	)
	)	No. 66838-2-1
Respondent,	)
	)	DIVISION ONE
v.	)
	)	UNPUBLISHED OPINION
LAWRENCE WARD,	)
	)
Appellant.	)
	)	FILED: November 28, 2011

Per Curiam. Lawrence Ward appeals the sentence imposed following his guilty plea to second degree unlawful possession of a firearm. He contends, and the State concedes, that the court lacked authority to impose a no-contact order under chapter 10.99 RCW because that statute applies only to victims of domestic violence. We accept the concession. See State v. Haddock, 141 Wn.2d 103, 110-11, 3 P.3d 733 (2000) (unlawful possession of a firearm is not a crime of domestic violence). Because the trial court did not enter a no-contact order under provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act of 1981, chapter 9.94A RCW, we do not address the parties' arguments regarding the court's authority to do so and leave that question for the court on remand.

Remanded for proceedings consistent with this opinion.
