REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION FOR ORDER OF RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

THIS MATTER came before the Board of Professional Responsibility on the 14th day of March, 2017, for consideration of the Stipulated Motion for Order of Reciprocal Discipline submitted pursuant to Rules 12 and 19 of the Wyoming Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, and the Board having reviewed the Stipulation, the accompanying affidavit of factual basis and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS, CONCLUDES and RECOMMENDS as follows:

1. Respondent was admitted to practice in Wyoming in 2013. He is a resident of Colorado, where he is was also licensed to practice law in 2013.
2. On December 8, 2016, an "Opinion and Order Imposing Sanctions Under C.R.C.P. 251.19(b)" was issued by the Office of the Presiding Disciplinary Judge of the Colorado Supreme Court. The Opinion and Order resulted from Respondent's violation of Rule 8.4(b) of the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct, which provides that it is professional misconduct for a lawyer to commit a criminal act that reflects adversely on the lawyer's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer in other respects.<sup>1</sup> The Opinion and Order imposed a two year suspension upon Respondent, to take effect upon issuance of an "Order and Notice of Suspension."

3. On January 12, 2017, the Presiding Disciplinary Judge issued an “Order and Notice of Suspension” suspending Respondent from the practice of law for a period of two years, effective immediately.

4. Respondent’s two-year suspension in Colorado followed Respondent’s plea of guilty and subsequent conviction in Colorado of unlawful sexual contact with a fifteen-year-old girl, a Class A Misdemeanor under Colorado Law.

5. On January 17, 2017, Bar Counsel filed a formal charge pursuant to Rule 19(d) of the Wyoming Rules of Disciplinary Procedure, which provides:

Upon receiving notice that an attorney subject to these rules has been publicly disciplined in another jurisdiction, Bar Counsel shall obtain the disciplinary order and prepare and file a formal charge against the attorney as provided in Rule 13. If Bar Counsel intends either to claim that substantially different discipline is warranted or to present additional evidence, notice of that intent shall be given in the formal charge. If the attorney intends to challenge the validity of the disciplinary order entered in the foreign jurisdiction, the attorney must file with the BPR Clerk an answer and a full copy of the record of the disciplinary proceedings which resulted in the imposition of that disciplinary order within 21 days after service of the formal charge or such greater time as the BPR Chair may allow for good cause shown. At the conclusion of proceedings brought under this Rule, the BPR shall issue a report and recommendation that the same discipline be imposed as was imposed by the foreign jurisdiction, unless it is determined by the BPR that:

- (1) The procedure followed in the foreign jurisdiction did not comport with requirements of due process of law;
- (2) The proof upon which the foreign jurisdiction based its determination of misconduct is so infirm that the BPR cannot, consistent with its duty, accept as final the determination of the foreign jurisdiction;
- (3) The imposition of the same discipline as was imposed in the foreign jurisdiction would result in grave injustice; or
- (4) The misconduct proved warrants that a substantially different form of discipline be recommended by the BPR.

6. Rule 19(a) provides, “Except as otherwise provided by these rules, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction of misconduct constituting grounds for discipline of an attorney shall, for purposes of proceedings pursuant to these rules, conclusively establish such misconduct.” The Colorado Order and Notice of Suspension is a final adjudication of such misconduct.

7. On January 17, 2017, Bar Counsel filed a formal charge pursuant to Rule 19(d). Respondent timely filed an answer to the formal charge on February 21, 2017, in which he admitted the allegations of the formal charge.

8. Bar Counsel does not claim that substantially different discipline is warranted. Respondent does not challenge the validity of the Colorado Order and Notice of Suspension.

9. For the reasons stated in Stipulation and based on the facts and admissions in Respondent’s affidavit of factual basis, the Board recommends that the Court issue an Order of Reciprocal Discipline.

10. If the Court accepts the Board’s recommendation and issues an Order of Reciprocal Discipline in accordance herewith, Bar Counsel and Respondent have agreed to the following press release:

The Wyoming Supreme Court issued an order of reciprocal discipline suspending Colorado lawyer Brian M. Reed Benight from the practice of law for a period of two years. The reciprocal order of suspension stemmed from a corresponding order issued by the Presiding Disciplinary Judge of the Colorado Supreme Court and followed Benight’s plea of guilty and conviction in Colorado of a criminal act that reflects adversely on Benight’s honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyer in other respects. Benight was ordered to pay an administrative fee in the amount of $750.00 and costs of $50.00 to the Wyoming State Bar.

For the foregoing reasons, the Board of Professional Responsibility recommends that the Court issue an Order of Reciprocal Discipline and further order Respondent to pay an administrative fee in the amount of $750.00 and costs of $50.00 to the Wyoming State Bar.

DATED this 15 day of March, 2017.

Board of Professional Responsibility
